

OHSAS 18001 Certified Lead Auditor

This training option allows you to take 3 full days of classes and achieve a certificate stating that you have successfully completed the Exemplar Global Certified Occupational Health & Safety Management System Lead Auditor Course (Pillar Management Associates is the certified course provider). The course is a comprehensive training in lead auditor techniques, methodology, practices and skills. It was designed and developed by a team who created and managed an accredited Certification Body.

Occupational Health & Safety Management Systems OHSAS 18001 Overview:

Highlights of the session include:

- Understanding Occupational and Health Management Systems and concepts of risk identification and management
- Historical and Regulatory Perspectives of OH&S Management (conformance vs. compliance)
- How to address and understand various methods of risk-based thinking
- OH&S Audit Programs (planning, scheduling, documenting, & reporting)
- Evaluating OH&S Management System Effectiveness
- Understanding documentation requirements
- Evaluation of conformance and performance indicators of management systems
- Audit Reporting
- Lead Auditor responsibilities, methods, and techniques
- Activities of corrective action and continual improvement

Competency Units Attained:

- OH: Occupational health management systems
- AU: Management systems auditing
- TL: Leading management system audit teams

Who Should Attend:

- 3rd party auditors
- Internal Audit Managers and Internal Auditors
- Consultants
- OHSAS Managers
- Management Representatives