

E3

E3 – Economy, Energy, and Environment – is a collaborate federal, state, and local initiative that provides manufacturers with customized, hands-on technical assessments of their production processes. It also follows up with recommendations for streamlining processes, reducing waste and the use of water and energy, increasing productivity, driving innovation, and increasing profitability.