

Family Business Advisor

This program assists in developing a well-integrated, comprehensive exit strategy for current leaders. It also helps determine the current and desired future value of the business to maximize investment, develop succession plans, and design a plan to move forward. With effective planning, both can thrive through the inevitable changes that impact every small business.