

Next Level Leadership

A high-impact professional development workshop for current and rising business leaders in South Carolina.

Next Level Leadership is a leadership development workshop designed to help leaders of all abilities build the skills, strategies and experience they need to lead successfully and with integrity. The end goal: An exceptional leader with the ability to drive business impact and performance.

Who should attend?

Current and future business leaders as identified by the CEO/President/GM. Individuals with a minimum 10 years professional experience and a sincere desire to improve their leadership effectiveness.

What will you gain?

Individual participants will gain new skills, strategies and best practices to improve their leadership and decision-making effectiveness. The organization will gain a deeper and more thoughtful rising leadership team and stronger succession plan.