

Basics of Supply Chain Management CPIM/CSCP

APICS Certified Production and Inventory Management is designed for individuals responsible for inventory, production planning, scheduling, forecasting, and operations function in a manufacturing environment.

This four-session, evening workshop offers a total of 16 Contact Hours and covers:

- Understanding basic business-wide concepts, including various supply chain environments
- Managing demand, including markets and customer expectations
- Designing products, processes, and information systems
- Understanding supply issues including inventory cost, functions, and metrics