

Executive Coaching Services

Coaching is a relationship which is designed and defined by the COACH and the CLIENT, which is based on the CLIENT's expressed interests, goals, and objectives.

COACH uses discussion, questions and requests to assist CLIENT in identifying personal and/or business goals, develop strategies and action plans intended to achieve such goals, and monitor progress towards implementation of the action plans.